WOLFE COUNTY.

Flat Facts.

S. D. Shackelford, of Campton, has recently moved to this section. Born, on the 25th ult., to the wife of Dillard Bradley, a fine boy. Aunt Liza White, one of the oldest women in this neighborhood, is quite ill.

W. H. Oliver, who is attending school at your town, was in our midst recently.

Mrs. Ellice Congleton, whom we reported as sick but convalescing in our last letter, is worse at this writing.

The hearts of our people are gladdened once more by the fine prospects for an abundance of fruit this year.

John Shoemaker caught a fish in the Red river, one-half mile above the mouth of upper Devil's creek, that weighed 20 pounds.

The corn planters are commencing to keep time to the melodious notes of the "plow bird," and the more deep and sonorous notes of the "plow man," as he runs the furrows through the soft, loamy soil that is to produce the golden grain that will gladden his waiting heart when the autumn leaves whirl through the hazy atmosphere.

Recently a converted Catholic preached at Antioch. He was educated at Geneva, Switzerland, for a Catholic priest of the Roman Catholic church. He was sent by the mission of that place to the United States to convert us heathens, as we are termed by them. After arriving in this country he was converted to the christian faith, joined the Missionary Baptists, and has ever since been traveling and working for the cause of Christ instead of the Pope of Rome.

The religious circle is agitated from center to circumference in this section of Wolfe and a large portion of Lee. The cause of this commotion is a young man who hails from unknown quarters. He is a reform preacher, and does nothing but "pull and tug" at the Methodist and other churches. He went get up and preach his doctrine like a gentleman and a christian, but just tries to use the scriptures to condemn and damn to sheel all other denominations but his; but, thank God, he cant do any such thing. I want to ask the good people of the Christian or reform church if this is the kind of preachers they endorse.

SLOCUM.

Lee City Locals.

Mrs. Alexander Caldwell is very low with dropsy.

Joe Allen's son John died on Saturday last with fever.

G. B. Maloney has made quite an improvement on his dwelling.

Born, on the 28th inst., to the wife of Thomas Helton, a boy.

Henry Pieratt, of your place, was in town Friday buying cattle.

Lilburn Graham, Joseph Roberts, Bent Little and J. W. Taul-bee, of Daysboro, was in town last week.

Clay Rose has sold several town lots to different parties for the purpose of improvement.

John W. Cravens, representing Rothschilds, Blumenthal & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in town Tuesday and sold some nice bills of goods to our merchants.

R. G. Rose sold his town property and his stock of merchandise to Rose Bros. for the land Rose Bros. got of the Wilson boys, so you see Lee City is on a boom.

Rose Bros. sold their stock of merchandise last week to R. M. and S. J. Wilson for what land said Wilson owned on State Road fork of Red river. Wilson and son took the stock of goods to Caney, Morgan county. AND.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Maytown Missiles.

Weather warm and dry.

Born to the wife of John Manning, a boy; named Jack Howard. W. P. Sample has fitted up a nice sample room for the accommodation of commercial men.

Millard Ritchey, in company with one of the fair sex of our town, attended preaching at Union Sunday.

A. D. Dye has just completed a new fence in front of the dwelling of W. P. Sample, which has improved the appearance of that part of town.

John W. Cravens, the hustling drummer for the wholesale clothing house of Rothschild, Blumenthal & Co., Cincinnati, was in town Saturday and sold a nice bill of goods.

Since the preacher said he would use his influence against the Sunday-school and prayer meeting of Maytown, we are requested to say that the attendance is on the increase.

J. T. Sexton was on our streets to-day. A young lady informed me that Tom was a standing candidate for matrimony, but was too particular about the age of the one whom he would wed.

W. W. Manker made a business trip to Mt. Sterling last week, and stayed two nights with his old friend and neighbor, E. B. May, and says if he owned one mile square anywhere in this valley he would exchange with E. B. if he did not ask him too much difference.

The cut worm is making a raid on the corn that is up in this neighborhood. H. B. Little says they have destroyed 12 acres of oats and young grass for him in the last few days. A Morgan county man says that if you will shoot a rifle gun across the field they will leave. Would give the gentleman's name but have not the yellor corn to spare. WINGLESS.

Handsome Spring Stock of Hats.

Mrs. Lou Day has just received her new stock of millinery and millinery goods, including trimmed hats and bonnets in the most fashionable shapes. She has them in all styles and at all prices, from 25c. to $7.00, and the lady who desires to make the best appearance will make a mistake if she fails to call. She also has a beautiful line of ribbons. But these hats—as a lady expressed it last evening—"they are just too lovely."

LIFE SENTENCE OF MURDERERS.

The Jury Spend Less Than Two Hours in the Fields-Adkins Case.

Jesse Fields and Joseph Adkins have been found guilty of the murder of county judge S. H. Combs, of Hazard, Perry county, and their punishment fixed at imprisonment for life in the state penitentiary.

Argument was concluded at 6:15 last Thursday evening. On account of the illness of one of the jurors, who lay on a bed in the court-room, the jury did not retire for deliberation but spent the night in the court-room. At 7:45 o'clock Friday morning the twelve men went into the jury-room. At 9 o'clock they sent word a verdict had been reached. They were brought into court and the following verdict read amid absolute silence:

"We, the jury, find the defendants guilty, and fix their punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life.

W. P. CHAMCE, Foreman."

The commonwealth's attorney suggested that the verdict be corrected, and read: "We, the jury, agree and find the defendants guilty as charged in the indictments, etc., and the jury and court consented. Immediately the court discharged the jury from further service.

By permission of the court the defendants and their counsel withdrew for consultation, returning in ten minutes with the announcement that a motion and grounds for a new trial would be prepared immediately, and filed with the court, which was done.

The verdict did not seem to have any effect upon the accused, other than to make them appear light-headed, as they indulged in fun-making with their friends. They manifested every indication of hopefulness, and appeared to have implicit confidence in their attorneys and belief in a future new trial.—Barbourville correspondent Courier-Journal.

The Star Spangled Banner's Author.

Many interesting things about Francis Scott Key—the author of the Star Spangled Banner—are contained in a pamphlet, which may be obtained free, from the Key monument association of Frederick City, Maryland, by sending one 2-cent stamp for postage. This association is raising funds for a suitable monument to the poet, and they suggest, that in the schools and everywhere, upon or before flag day (June 14th) this subject be suitably recognized. Contributions, however small, are asked for. Every one who loves the flag ought to have some small share in building this monument. The governor of Maryland has strongly endorsed the movement. The names of all contributors will be preserved in the crypt of the monument, and published (without amount) in the history of the monument when completed.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by John M. Rose.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Miss Lula Kash visited Salyersville Monday and Tuesday.

S. M. Nickell, of Index, and J. S. Farmer, of Haystack, are again in school.

J. R. DeBusk and W. H. Poynter spent from Friday till Sunday in Menefee county.

C. E. French spent last week at his home in Powell county, returning to school Monday.

J. S. Adams went to Salyersville Sunday to visit his cousin, Kelly Adams, who is quite sick.

Willie Kash has been in Estill county for some days looking after a school to teach this year.

James Roark, of Falcon, came down Saturday for his brother Harlan, and they returned home Sunday.

Misses Lula and Stella Kash, Anna E. Pieratt and Anna Belle Combs spent April 27 and 28 in Campton.

Lou A. Maxey, Monrovia Testerman, John Osborne and W. H. Oliver spent Saturday and Sunday at their homes.

Enrolled since last notes: Cordelia and Cora Williams, county; Miss Clarke Quicksall, Index; Clarence Blankenship, county.

Miss Lucy Neal, of Guthrie, Oklahoma Territory, who has been taking a course in stenography and typewriting here since Christmas, returned to West Liberty last week, where she will visit among friends till September.

E. E. Atkinson, accompanied by Wm. H. Ark and several of the pupils, and perhaps others, will leave for Cynthia on the morning of the 16th. The declamatory contest, in which E. E. Atkinson will speak, will be held the evening of the 17th.

The school will begin the commencement exercises with an entertainment this year on the evening of June 1, at 8 o'clock. On Sunday morning at 11, Rev. W. S. Keene, of Winchester, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the Christian church. Monday at 8 p. m., will be held the young men's oratorical and declamatory contests. On Tuesday at 2 p. m., will be held a meeting of the patrons, friends and pupils of the school, at which time speeches will be made by persons from surrounding counties, former pupils and others interested in the work. At 8 p. m. the young ladies' declamatory contest will be held, and medals for deportment and attendance and scholarship will be awarded. On Wednesday, at 10 a. m., the exercises prepar will be held, in which the three young men graduating will deliver orations, and James H. Swango will deliver the address to the graduating class, and the principal of the school will give a brief history of the Academy and present the diplomas. On Wednesday evening, at the home, will be given the annual fête, and at 12 p. m. the work of the year will close. ACADEMY.

When so many people are taking and deriving benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, why don't you try it yourself? It is highly recommended.

OVER THE STATE.

The fiscal court of Boyd county has merged the offices of county surveyor and road supervisor into one and fixed the salary at $75 per month.

The first issue of the Russell Tribune, published at Jamestown, appeared last Thursday. Elmore Brents, who formerly published the Albany Banner, is editor and proprietor.

The Princeton Oil and Gas Company was organized a few days ago. The company will bore for oil and gas in Caldwell county and have already secured a number of tracts of land for development.

The recent assessment in Paducah shows that the total value of property in that city is $6,942,697, of which $155,170 is held by colored people. There are 8,054 white voters in that city and 1,278 colored voters.

W. E. Taylor, who has been editing the Allen County Home and School, and was recently elected county superintendent of schools, will retire from active work on the paper to devote his time to the duties of the office.

The representatives of the German beet land in Warren county on which it is proposed to locate a colony, will go to Butler county and take a look at the lands along Green river this week. It is stated that the prospects for the establishment of the colony are encouraging.

The merchants of Louisa propose to provide a register, in which the names of debtors, who are not prompt to pay their bills, shall be entered. The register is to be open to public inspection at all times and the names are to remain until their accounts with the merchants are paid.

In 1893 the Town and Lands Company, of Middleborough, paid taxes on $1,198,855 worth of property; in 1894 their property was assessed at $476,790, and this year they want the assessment reduced to $281,840. Private property holders at Middleborough are protesting that if the Town and Lands Company is allowed a reduction in assessment of about one-fifth from the assessment of 1893, then all the property in the city should be appraised at the same reduced rate. The city taxes of Middleborough, it is said, would be scarcely worth collecting if the town and lands company is allowed the reduction claimed, and other property reduced in the same proportion.

A man named Cook, who has been running a fruit store, making shoes and incidentally, it is said, selling liquor in violation of law at Earlington, was promised immunity from arrest for the offenses already committed if he would leave town within a certain time. Mr. Cook promised to comply and kept his word, but forgot to take his wife and children with him. The mayor of the town received a visit from Cook's wife after he had fled and was charged with being responsible for the desertion. Mrs. Cook says she is a subject of Great Britain, and threatens to call the attention of the British government to the injustice done her by the authorities at Earlington.

The Morgan County Messenger urges the town trustees of West Liberty to pass an ordinance requiring all business houses to close promptly at 8 o'clock p. m. every night. This demand is not so ingular, but the ground on which the Messenger bases it is peculiar. The Messenger says: Under the "present state of affairs there is serious danger of a lamp being broken by some drunken man, which perhaps would ignite and set fire to the building in which it is located, and consequently might fire a number of adjoining buildings. Let the business houses all close not later than 9 o'clock, and there will be fewer causes before our police judge and much less danger of the destruction of property."

MURDERED.

A Warren County Farmer Slain by His Brother.

A sensational tragedy was enacted a few miles east of Bowling Green, Ky., a few days since, when Columbus Phelps, aged about 60 years, shot and killed his half brother, a few years his junior, while he lay in bed at his home. The murderer came to Bowling Green and surrendered himself to the sheriff.

Some years ago Erastus Phelps, a son of Columbus Phelps, left the country, after having been indicted for stealing a horse from Henry Phelps, the man murdered. He was recently captured in Oklahoma and brought back, his trial having been set for the 29th ult.

Columbus Phelps, armed with a shot gun, came to the home of his step-brother about daylight on the morning of the murder and asked to see him. He went directly to Henry's room, where he was yet in bed. Columbus told Henry that if he would give testimony on the trial that would lead to the acquittal of Erastus he would give him a horse and $30. Henry replied that he would see about it; whereupon Columbus raised the shot gun, filling his body with shot as he lay beside his wife.

Columbus Phelps claims that he is deranged, and gives this as the cause of the crime. He says it was brought about by his step-brother's action in trying to conceal the fact concerning the horse episode. He declares his son won the horse fairly in a game of cards, and was entitled to sell it. The concealment of this would have caused the conviction of Erastus. The murderer claims that his son had led a wandering life during his absence from the state, and was making an honorable living. He claims the prosecution of his son was spite work, and so outraged his feelings that he lost his reason.

Grains of Gold.

In the man whose childhood has known caresses there is always a fibre of memory that can be touched to gentle issues.

The intellectual faculty is a goodly field capable of great improvement, and it is the worst husbandry in the world to sow it with trifles.

There is a respect due to age, but there is a respect also due to youth, the lack of which accounts for many a failure in the household and in systems of education.

It is very painful to be misunderstood and undervalued by those we love. But this, too, in our life must we learn to bear without a murmur; for it is a tale so often repeated.

Patience is the finest and worthiest part of fortitude, and the rarest, too. Patience lies at the root of all pleasures as well as of all powers. Hope herself ceases to be happiness when impatience accompanies her.

Snatched From the Grave.

Letter to the Jamestown (N. Y.) Sun. "Busti, Chautauque Co., N. Y., July 19, 1893. Editor Sun:—I consider it a duty to make the following statement: One year ago last April I became afflicted with kidney disease. I employed one of the most experienced physicians of this section of the country. I frequently rode to his office, worked up in my carriage with pillows. I obtained no permanent relief. I was Reduced to a mere Skeleton.

My father, Jacob Johnson, of Ellery, died of the same disease three years ago, and I began to think there was little hope for me.

Some time in Aug. Dr. M. M. Fennor, of Freedom, N. Y., called on me while making his canvass for the state senate. Learning of my condition he said he had a remedy for said that he would send me some. His Kidney and Backache Cure helped me from the start. My digestion improved, the soreness left my sides and back, and I took on healthy muscle again.

When I had finished the first bottle I was cured. I took a little of the second and then gave the balance to an afflicted friend.

I have not met Dr. Fennor since, but I can not say enough in praise of his Kidney and Backache Cure. Yours truly,

ERASTUS H. JOHNSON.

ANTI-RHEUMATIC

$2—RING—$2

A Speedy and Permanent Cure For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Gout, Lumbago and all other diseases where a general warming, quickening, strengthening and equalizing of the circulation is required. It will last for years, gives no shock, and but a mild, soothing sensation in wearing it. No waiting a long time for results. It acts quickly; generally the first week, more frequently the first day, and sometimes even in the first hour its curative powers are felt. It is inexpensive, harmless in operation, while simple in application, entailing neither discomfort or inconvenience. Though marvelous in the results it has achieved, its seeming simplicity has the effect of causing many to doubt its virtues. But in many instances you will feel a very pleasant sensation the moment it is properly adjusted to your little finger. In proof of the above statement I will refer you to the following most estimable ladies and gentlemen:

J. W. Sparks, W. H. Phillips, Wm. Handy, Ed. Kent, Mrs. Morton Funk, Mrs. G. B. Taylor, Sam Smith, J. W. Carroll, Ben Spears, David Arnold. And a hundred others if necessary. Many of these would not take $1,000 for their ring and be compelled to do without one. They cost only $2. No other ring will answer for the same purpose. No medicine had any effect on me, but my ring, placing sensation, and relief of an excruciating pain. Old folks become young and vigorous.

Railroad Item.

To a Lexington Leader man W. D. L. Walbridge, the New York railroad magnate and capitalist, stated that it was certain that the road from Walnut Grove (Morgan county) coal mines will be built to tap the Lexington & Eastern somewhere along the line near Beattyville.

"I have been up the road," he said, "and have seen the country for myself. I think the coal fields in and around Walnut Grove, Morgan county, are the richest known to miners. The coal to be obtained there is of the finest quality. Then the timber supply is also abundant."

"The road from Walnut Grove by way of Hazel Green to Torrent will open up a rich country and this will certainly benefit Lexington."

"As to the other two routes they have been surveyed and found impracticable. The country from Walnut Grove to Frenchburg is the roughest I ever saw. The people in Morgan county have failed to give the proper encouragement to our enterprise, and the road is not liable to go their way. I at first had serious ideas of building direct to Morehead."

"The people took the matter up and were enthusiastic for a time. Later, however, they decided that the road was going to be built anyway, and they might as well make all they could out of it. Consequently we were unable to obtain more than one-third of the right of way. The road won't be built to Morehead."

Mr. Walbridge said he was much pleased with the little town of Campton, and gratified at the way in which the Hazel Green people have taken hold of the enterprise. —Morgan County Messenger.

Bad Roads.

The following from the Clay City Chronicle applies to many counties in this portion of the state and we give it to our readers with our hearty endorsement. We must make better roads if we expect to develop this great country. "There is millions in it!"

"The present condition of the roads in this county suggests the need of a better system or a more vigorous management of the present one. The indifference on this subject by those most directly interested would be incomprehensible in any other civilized country than this. Why any people should be content to wallow along through mud and mire, and remain poor and miserable all their lives is explainable upon no other theory than that of a lack of appreciation of the advantages which civilization affords. It would almost seem that some of our ancestors must have caught some of the spirit, or rather the lack of spirit, of the aborigines. All that territory which forms the great and prosperous states of the northwest, less than a hundred years ago was occupied by a people who made no advancement and opposed at every step the march of improvement by others. As a result, they lived a poor, degraded, miserable existence until the march of progress has practically obliterated them from the face of the earth."

"We do not mean to insinuate that our people are so bad as this, but there are some instances where the tendency seems almost as strong in one direction as the other. People who refuse to lend their sanction and support to education and improvement are only a few degrees removed from the Indian, and would, if left to themselves, degenerate into a state bordering on barbarism in a generation or two. Civilized people the world over have schools, churches, newspapers, roads; and the degree of support these receive is an unerring indication as to the character of the civilization. Barbarians have none of these—don't want any, in fact, for these are the eternal foes of idleness, poverty and savagery." —Jackson Hustler.

James H. Swango, at present a member of the senior class in the law department of Centre college, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the legislature from Wolfe and Morgan counties. His home is at Hazel Green, and he will go home to make an active canvass immediately after the close of school. He will have opposition for the nomination, but has received many voluntary assurances of warm support from his friends. Louisville Times.

Quadrennial Sessions.

Dr. John A. Snowden, who is a Democratic candidate for the legislature from Clark county, tells in a card what he will attempt to do if sent to Frankfort: "One of the first measures we wish to have the honor of presenting to the next legislature," he says, "is an amendment to the constitution providing for quadrennial instead of biennial sessions of the legislature. We are not suffering so much for the enactment of new laws as we are from the proper execution of laws already existing. It is not our province or desire to criticize our former legislatures, but like all other human institutions, they have not been models of wisdom and perfection; and while it is not true in whole it is in part, that one legislature spends a great deal of time in repealing or altering the laws passed by its predecessor, I think we can well afford to dispense with this biennial luxury and thus save the state every four years more than one hundred thousand dollars of hard-earned money. The governor has and could still retain the prerogative of convening the body to meet any emergency requiring prompt and immediate legislation."

Kills Himself and Wounds Another.

William H. Brown, a patient received at the western lunatic asylum at Hopkinsville, Ky., on the 5th inst., from Union county, suicided in his cell on the evening of the 6th inst., by cutting his throat with a knife stolen from another patient. When found at locking up time he was in a terrible condition, and during the struggle to subdue him he cut a gash along the stomach of an attendant by the name of Thomasson, who lies in a critical condition with little hope of recovery. Until overpowered and bound, Brown kept gashing his own throat and trying to cut the half dozen men struggling with him. He was 50 years old, very powerful and desperate. He lived only a short time after being subdued.

Joseph C. Lykins this week announced himself as a candidate for the legislature through the columns of THE HERALD. Mr. Lykins is a gentleman well known throughout this legislative district, having served the people in different capacities and to their satisfaction. Should the people select him as their choice, he would doubtless fill the position with honor to himself and with satisfaction to his constituency.

A GREAT DEAL.

An extra good opportunity occurred by which we were enabled to fill up our partially exhausted stock at a very low price.

WE HAVE

Closed out the entire product of the immense clothing firm of M. & L. S. FECH-HEIMER & CO, Cincinnati, and the season being over for them, the price was something like half their actual value.

WE SURRENDER

All the advantage of the sale, and openly defy any house to match these prices:

THE HERALD.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.
We are authorized to announce Hon. D. S. GOSNEY, of Hazel Green, as a candidate to represent Wolfe and Morgan counties in the next legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

DANVILLE, KY., April 30, 1895.
To the Democrats of Morgan and Wolfe Counties:

At the solicitation of many friends both in Morgan and Wolfe, who have given me much encouragement, and prompted by a desire (ardonable, I trust,) to represent my district in the next general assembly, I have decided, after due consideration, to become a candidate for Representative, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I am now in the office of ex-Governor Proctor J. Knott, and a member in the senior class in the law department of Centre college. I expect to finish my work here about the 10th of May, when I shall return to my home in Wolfe county and personally solicit your support. Thanking the many who have so generously extended their best wishes toward me, and trusting that I may be found worthy of your consideration, I remain, Respectfully,
JAMES H. SWANGO.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH C. LYKINS, of Campton, as a candidate to represent Wolfe and Morgan counties in the next legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.
We are authorized to announce JOHN C. WOOD, of Montgomery county, as a candidate for the office of Railroad Commissioner in this, the Third district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

Doek Hicks, of Frenchburg, was in town yesterday.

Quite a shower of hail fell here Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Nannie Kash has rented and moved in the old hall property.

Mrs. Buford Pieratt, of Ezel, is visiting the family of J. E. Quick-sall, of south Hazel Green.

Hon. D. S. Godsey left last Friday for Morgan county to talk to the dear people about the legislative race.

Mrs. A. F. Pieratt and son Frank, of Ezel, visited Mrs. John H. Pieratt, of our town, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. O. W. Cecil will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better half for a fine large bunch of pie plant.

Charley Swango made a flying trip from Frankfort to his native heath behind a span of yellow ponies this week.

Miss Laura Rawlings and Mrs. Fletcher Maguire returned home Saturday after spending a few days with friends in Ezel.

The great saddle stallion, Eagle Drennon, is making the season at Maytown. Breeders might profit by taking a look at some of his colts in this vicinity.

Miss Allie Williams, of Lexington, after a sojourn here of several weeks, left for her home last week much delighted with the people and the mountains.

Elder J. T. Pieratt will preach at the Aleck Maxey schoolhouse, near the Caney ford, this side of West Liberty, Saturday night and Sunday morning and night.

Sherman Cope, of Jackson, was down this way last week, and said he was going home Sunday; but when last seen was making his way towards Lacy creek.

James H. Swango came home last Sunday from Danville where he has been attending school in the law department of Centre college. He is a candidate for the legislature, and has already begun his canvass.

We learn that George Patton a few days since shot and fatally wounded James Russell. Russell was a member of a kluksu gang who attempted to "regulate" Patton for indecencies done to members of his family. The affair happened on Cane creek, in Breathitt county.

Hazel Green Medical Association.

Pursuant to announcement the physicians met in the Day house, in this place, at 1 o'clock, on the 4th inst., and organized by electing the following officers: President, Dr. J. H. Stamper, Campton; vice-president, Dr. J. A. Taulbee, Hazel Green; secretary, Dr. J. R. Carroll, Lee City; assistant secretary, Dr. A. E. Nickell, Hazel Green; treasurer, Dr. B. F. Hatten, Holly. On motion of Dr. Carroll, Drs. Taulbee and Nickell were appointed a committee to draft by-laws and resolutions to govern the association and report at next meeting, which will be held in the Day house, in this city, on the 8th of June, at 10 o'clock.

Moved that Dr. Taulbee read a paper at next meeting, after which the members will discuss said paper. Physiology was selected as the subject.

Dr. J. H. Stamper then discussed at length the physiological effect of the cold tar derivatives, condemning their use in the usual large doses.

Dr. J. R. Carroll reported a case of bilious malaria, complicated with pneumonia, and died in two days after pneumonia symptoms were detected. Then a discussion followed in which all present participated.

The association voted thanks to Mrs. Lou Day for use of the room and refreshing ice water furnished.

On motion of Dr. J. R. Carroll the meeting adjourned after an invitation to all reputable physicians to be at the next meeting.

J. H. STAMPER, President.
J. R. CARROLL, Secretary.

Premiums Offered.
I will give a premium of $5 for the best mule colt sired by Roscoe to the person who may patronize him this year. The decision as to the qualities of the colt will be decided by competent judges at our next fair. The price for service by both horse and jack has been reduced from $6 to $5. I will also give premiums on best colts, both horse and jack, next year. The get of both these animals have always given the best satisfaction, and breeders would do well to learn their qualities before placing their mares.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, and daughter, Jessie, left Sunday for a visit in Magoffin county.

Attention, Ladies.
Mrs. F. N. Day has just received the most beautiful and carefully selected stock of spring and summer hats, millinery, fancy goods, and in fact everything requisite to the "make-up" of a lady, that was ever brought to Hazel Green, and she is selling them at the lowest possible prices. She most respectfully invites the ladies to inspect these goods before purchasing elsewhere, as she feels confident that she can give satisfaction both in styles and prices.

Ask Courtney Maguire if he feels as lonesome as he looks since he has retired from the hotel business.

How's This!
We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
We, the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last fifteen years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

West & Traux, wholesale druggists, Toledo, O. Waiding, Kinnaird & Marvin, wholesale druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

The first and indispensable thing about medicine is that it shall be absolutely harmless and leave no room for reaction. Ramon's Tonic Liver Pill, whose wonderful cures have made so much stir in this section recently, is such a medicine. It is absolutely harmless, and cannot fail to be of benefit to any one who tries it. It is a positive specific for all forms of sick headache, disordered liver, biliousness, etc. The tiny Pellets which accompany the pills are for building up the system. The two medicines together cost only 35 cents. Ask your druggist for free sample.

Misses Florence Quicksall and Nannie Fields attended the entertainment at West Liberty on Friday night last, and report having a pleasant trip. Miss Hunter prepared an excellent program for the entertainment, and it was most admirably rendered. Miss Nannie returned to her home in Ezel on Sunday last, having been summoned to the bedside of her mother.

The Epworth League of Campton will give an entertainment on next Saturday night, at which time Benjamin Sewell will deliver an address entitled "Evil Associations." A rare literary treat is in store for those who attend, and we bespeak for the league a pleasant and (spiritually) prosperous evening.

W. S. Hager, wife and child, of Jackson, came down last week on a visit. Mrs. Hager is a sister of Mrs. John A. Taulbee, at whose home the family are visiting. Mrs. Hager, while here, in company with Miss Sabina Taulbee, paid THE HERALD office a pleasant visit.

Tired, Weak, Nervous,
Means impure blood, and overwork or too much strain on the brain and body. The only way to cure is to feed the nerves on pure blood. Thousands of people certify that the best blood purifier, the best nerve tonic and strength builder is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What it has done for others it will also do for you—Hood's cures. Nervousness, loss of sleep, loss of appetite and general debility all disappear when Hood's Sarsaparilla is persistently taken, and strong nerves, sweet sleep, strong body, sharp appetite, and in a word, health and happiness follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The strong point about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that they are permanent, because they start from the solid foundation of purified, vitalized and enriched blood.

Monroe Havens and Harve Nickell went to Owingsville last week to perfect arrangements in regard to some business transactions, but as Monroe says he has got to go back to court, he must have left matters in rather an unsettled condition.

H. B. Maupin, representing Reed, Peebles & Co., Portsmouth, Ohio, was at the Day house Sunday.

MINISTERS OF THE GOSPEL ENDORSE

ELECTROPOISE.

Rev. John I. Rogers, Danville, Ky. It is a mystery to me, almost a miracle.
Rev. Z. Meek, Catlettsburg, Ky. I have used the Electropoise for five years and find it invaluable a curative agent, especially in cases of feeble women and delicate children.
Rev. Robert Barrett, Louisville Baptist Seminary. Electropoise cured after all other remedies failed.
Rev. W. W. Bruce, Hustonville, Ky. Electropoise cured opium habit.
Rev. Geo. Means, Covington, Ky. In one night the Electropoise relieved brain congestion and vertigo.

We could fill this paper with similar reports, but think this sufficient to interest you in sending for book on the subject of health. Electropoise rented four months for $10.00.

A Good Record.

At a recent term of the circuit court at Beattyville, there was not a single conviction for felony. Several persons were tried on misdemeanor charges and the sentences imposed were, in nearly every instance, the highest penalty which the law provides. The Beattyville Enterprise regards this as a vindication of a great improvement in the regard for law in the mountains and congratulates the people. "Let the good work go on," says the Enterprise, "and the day will come when the mountain counties will guarantee to their citizens that protection and immunity from danger not found in the more favored regions of the commonwealth."

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Holden drug store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by John M. Rose.

Gold and Silver Coined Together.

The Detroit (Michigan) Tribune publishes an editorial which declares that all existing coinage laws should be repealed and that there be enacted a law creating a new American dollar which would be the sole standard coin of the nation, the dollar to be composed of 204 grains of standard silver and 12 9-10 grains of standard gold fused together and struck into a handsome coin about the size of the present half-dollar.

The coin would be absolutely stable value for—in case of dispa-ity at any time in the commercial values of gold and silver—what was lost by the depreciation of one metal would be made up by the exactly corresponding appreciation of the other. It would not be necessary to export the coin while uncoined gold could be procured, which would be just as available. If at any time it became necessary to separate the gold from the silver it could be done at the United States mint at a cost of less than 1 per cent. This very cost would be a protection against the exportation of coin while uncoined bullion was obtainable.

Don't Stop Tobacco.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing comfort, health and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco, to an inveterate user becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1873 without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking Baco-Curo—it will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest. Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day when you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our iron-clad guarantee, at $1.00 per box, three boxes (30 day's treatment) $2.50, or sent direct upon receipt of price. Send six 2-cent stamps for sample box, booklet and proofs free. Eureka Chemical & Manufacturing Company, manufacturing chemists, La-Crosse, Wisconsin.

Style of Dress.

A great number of women ruin their appearance by not changing their style of dress when nature changes their style of looks. A woman does not keep one style all her life; she starts out blonde and thin; within ten years she becomes much darker in effect and becomes much broader and stouter; but ten to one she clings passionately to the colors and general character of gowns and bonnets that were always becoming to her. She is sure to look worn and faded. It is a great thing not to fall into a rut in clothes. Look with a single mind at the present effect of the things you try on.

When any of our citizens visit Winchester, they will find the restaurant of A. Gnadenager the best place in town to get a square meal, and they can save money by patronizing him. He also deals in confectioneries, fruits, cakes, etc., and can furnish fresh bread every day to parties who desire it shipped to them over the Lexington and Eastern railway. 46-8m

Good or Bad.

The state exchanges are publishing and republishing the following poetry, the quality and arrangement of which is good or bad according to taste:

"Backward, turn backward, oh time in thy flight, feed me cruel again just for tonight; I am so weary of sole-leather steak, petrified doughnuts and vulcanized cake; oysters that sleep in the watery bath; butter as strong as Goliath of Gath; weary for praying for what I can't eat, chewing up rubber and calling it meat. Backward, turn backward, for weary I am! Give me a whack at my grandmother's jam; let me drink milk that has never been skimmed; let me eat butter whose hair's been trimmed; let me once more have an old fashioned pie, and then I'll be willing to curl up and die."

"Don't Tobacco Spit or Smoke Your Life Away."

The truthful, startling title of a book about No-to-bac, the only harmless, guaranteed tobacco habit cure. If you want to quit and can't, use "No-to-bac." Braces up nicotine-nerved nerves, eliminates nicotine poisons, makes weak men gain strength, weight and vigor. Positive cure or money refunded. Sold by all druggists. Book at druggists, or mailed free. Address the Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago office, 45 Randolph street; New York, 10 Spruce street.

An Expression of Genuine Love.

The three sons of a lady were invited to furnish her with an expression of their love before she went away for a long journey. One brought a marble tablet with the inscription of her name, and another presented her with a rich garland of flowers. The third entered her presence and thus addressed her: "Mother, I have neither marble tablet nor fragrant nosegay, but I have a heart; here your name is engraven; here your name is precious. And this heart full of affection will follow you wherever you travel, and remain with you wherever you repose."

BY THE WEATHER MAN.

At either pole the intensity of the solar heat is one-fourth greater than at the equator, because at the pole, the sun shines during the whole twenty-four hours.

The annual rainfall of Great Britain equals 9,300,000 horse power; of Germany, 11,800,000; of France, 12,000,000; of Russia, 27,000,000; of the United States, 430,000,000.

The opening of the door of a warm room in Lapland during the winter will be instantly followed by a miniature snowstorm, the condensed moisture falling in flakes.

In 1865 nearly all the birds of Europe were killed by the cold. Wolves entered Vienna and other large cities, and, driven by hunger, attacked the people in the streets.

The cold of Canada seems to diminish with an increase of population. Between 1878 and 1887 Hudson's bay was closed an average of one hundred and eighty-four days every year; now its ice lasts one hundred and seventy-nine days.

WINDOW SHADE HINTS.

ALWAYS place roller in brackets with shade rolled up.

If the shade is tacked on properly it will hang toward the window.

ALWAYS fasten the round-hole bracket on the right-hand side of the window. To roll a shade to a window with inside shutters, fasten inside molding next to shutters.

If the spring is too strong, remove roller from brackets with shade rolled up, turn a few turns and replace.

To strengthen the spring, draw the shade down a few revolutions, remove roller from brackets, roll up shade and replace.

In replacing a window shade that has been torn from the roller, use nothing but one ounce tacks; longer tacks injure the spring.

HE WANTED WORK.

And He Clung to the Summit of Ben Nevis to Find It.

An early tourist has brought down a curious story from the top of Ben Nevis. It is thus told in a Scotch paper: One afternoon last winter the assistants in the observatory were somewhat startled by a knock at the door—a most unusual occurrence at that season of the year. The visitor turned out to be a man from London. His clothes were frozen stiff and his beard was a mass of ice. After having been warmed and fed, he astonished the assistants by telling them that he had come up in search of work. When at the foot of the mountain some one had advised him—with rather grim humor—to try Ben Nevis observatory. Thus it was that he came to climb the four thousand and some hundred odd feet. The assistants, after replenishing his wardrobe and supplying him with a good store of food, sent him off on his downward way, so that he had no cause to grumble at being the victim of a practical joke.

The Good That Remains.

How many are there who are valuing themselves by what they have, and not by what they are! What they may have, or talent, or money, or position; it matters not what, but it is not their very selves. True worth cannot be separated from a man's real self. Money, position, even intellect, may go, but the sterling, i. e., the "moral," worth will remain. A Sultan of Morocco is said to have discovered that one of his viziers was becoming too powerful. He therefore summoned him to test, and complimented him on his great wealth. The vizier becoming vain, boasted of the number of his houses, wives and slaves, and the sultan rebuked him saying that he was too rich. To show the man exactly by what he was worth, his majesty had him taken by the soldiers to the slave market, where he was put up for sale and received only one bid of eightpence. All his property was also taken from him. The price which we put upon ourselves and our fellow men put upon us are two very different things.

Death by Electricity.

The Digest gives an account of some experiments on the effect of alternating electric currents on animal organisms, described in a paper read before a recent medical congress at Rome, Italy, and which corroborate the views of D'Asonval, referred to recently. The current used was an alternating one, and it was found that animals subjected to from fifteen hundred to two thousand volts were not easily killed, and that death resulted mostly from asphyxia caused by the sudden stoppage of respiration. Frequently breathing started again spontaneously, and the animal recovered completely. In no case was there any physiological change noted, though in a few there were mechanical lesions, in themselves cause for death. This further confirmation of D'Asonval's formula, "A man shocked by electricity should be treated as if drowned," renders it still more important that the electrician should make himself acquainted with the proper means of resuscitation from the effects of electric shock.

A Momentous Proceeding.

In Mr. Montague's "Tales of a Nomad" he says that in the old days the Boer seldom used his pen, but when he did there was a regular commotion in the household. He is quiet all of you. Drive out the ducks and the geese, and the pigs and the fowls. Father is going to write his name." And then the old gentleman, with elbows squared on the table, would seize the pen with a flourish, and putting on a determined look, as if he were going to tackle an adversary, would bend down his head until it nearly touched his left arm, write his name with many a splutter, and then, throwing down the pen and pushing the chair, would look round with an air of mingled pride and resignation and say: "I have done it."

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

Archibald Brown Killed by Fulton Gordon.

AND THE WIFE OF GORDON KEEPS THE SAME PACE.

An Assignment Shows in Louisville the Scene of the Crime.

There was a bloody shooting affair in Louisville on the morning of the 80th ult., at 1,205 Madison street. Arch Brown, son of the governor of Kentucky, was shot and killed by Fulton Gordon. The wife of Gordon shared the same fate. It seems that Brown and Gordon's wife were in the house at 1,205 Madison street, and Gordon followed them there and caught them together. Gordon at once attacked Brown and shot him fatally. Gordon then turned his weapon on his wife and sent a bullet through her breast, killing her almost instantly.

The Leader correspondent was on the scene a moment after the shooting occurred, and when he arrived the woman was lying dead on the cellar door in the back yard of the place, and Brown was in one of the upstairs rooms.

A great crowd gathered around the building and the excitement was intense, as all sorts of rumors were afloat as to the killing. One woman said that she had seen the meeting, and that it was the son of the governor of Kentucky that had been killed.

Mrs. Gordon was Miss Nellie Bush, of Louisville. About ten years ago she was married to Gordon, who was at that time a clerk at the Galt house. The wedding was an elopement. Shortly afterward Gordon and his wife moved to Frankfort, where he became proprietor of the Capitol hotel. This he continued to run until the World's Fair began, when he sold out his establishment and moved to Chicago.

Gordon was watching his wife and Brown and saw them enter the house. He waited a few moments and then rushed in, to find that they had retired together. Forcing his way into the chamber, he began firing on the guilty couple. Brown returned the fire, and nine shots were exchanged, of which Brown fired four. Gordon, as soon as Brown fell, shot his wife. Lucy Smith, colored, was the only woman in the house at the time of the shooting, except Wallace Montgomery, a little boy. When seen shortly after the shooting she seemed greatly excited, but managed to tell all she knew about the crime. She said: "It was exactly 11 o'clock when Mr. Brown and the woman came to the house. No one was in but Wallace (meaning the little boy) and myself. I told him to go to the door as I was ironing some clothes. When he returned he told me that it was Mr. Brown and a lady, and that he had shown them up stairs. Nothing more was thought of them till the shooting.

"About half an hour later there was another ringing of the door bell, and the little boy again went to the door. He soon called me and said that there was a gentleman at the door who said he wanted to rent a room. He said he was alone.

"I then went to the door and was met by Gordon. He had been at the house before. He said he was tired and wanted to lie down and go to sleep. I told him to lie down in the front room, as the man and woman were in the only available room, on the second floor. He immediately began undressing, and I left the room.

"I returned to my work in the kitchen and began talking to the little colored boy, when I was startled by nine pistol shots in rapid succession. I ran out the back alley and found an officer. With him I returned to the house to find the yard and house crowded with people.

"We were told that a woman and two men had been shot in the front room up stairs. As we neared the front part of the house I observed the body of a woman, seemingly dead on the back porch. In the hall a man half dressed, was gasping for breath. This was Gordon.

"I learned later that he had attempted to escape immediately after the shooting, but was captured by officer O'Reilly and returned to the house, where he soon relapsed into a state of unconsciousness. He was resuscitated shortly after, however, and I heard the first physician, who arrived say that he was not hurt.

"Mr. Brown and Gordon have both visited this house frequently, and we know them well.

"No, I never saw the woman before, but I am positive she has been here before. The little boy always let people in when Miss Smith was out."

From what the woman said it would seem that Gordon had some intimation of what was going on, and came to the house with the intention of killing the man and his wife. There can be no reason assigned for his taking his clothes off before going up stairs.

The guilty couple were taken completely by surprise. Brown was prepared for such a visit as his pistol was lying near, but before he could reach it the enraged husband commenced firing. His aim was true, every shot taking effect, Brown's body being riddled. Brown fired a few shots and then staggered to a chair in the corner, then fell over on the bed. Gordon then turned to his wife and fired on her, striking her in the breast. Though mortally wounded, she was able to get down the steps and run twenty feet to the cellar door.

Little May Bentley is an accomplished elocutist and natural born speaker of only 12 years of age. She is the only child temperance lecturer before the public. "I heartily join with the many thousands that are recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had been troubled from infancy with gatherings in the head. I was compelled to leave school upon the doctor's advice. He thought it was the only thing to save my life, but I

Continued to Grow Wiser. I was persuaded finally by a friend to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The use of one bottle acted effectively upon the blood and I began to improve. After the use of three bottles the gathering ceased and I am proud of my former trouble. the best families in Louisville. She was 30 years old and leaves three children. On account of the high family connection the murder caused a great sensation. Brown was recently divorced from his wife. When the divorce was published no woman's name was connected with the case, but it is understood the reason for the divorce lay in Brown's intimacy with Mrs. Gordon.

The news of the killing of young Brown created great excitement in Frankfort. He was his father's private secretary and well known to the society of Frankfort and the state. Gordon, who did the shooting, was formerly proprietor of the Capitol hotel, and is well connected.—Lexington Leader.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Bayle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionary establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by J. M. Rose.
